

FREEDOM SUNDAY

STANDING UNITED AGAINST
MODERN SLAVERY
NCM.org/FreedomSunday

FEB 14

Modern slavery is real, and as the church, we are being called to say, "No more!" Today, millions of children, women, and men are being forced to do unthinkable things through human trafficking. As the church, we are called to take a stand and provide hopeful alternatives to this oppression.

ON FREEDOM SUNDAY, WE STAND UNITED AS THE CHURCH AGAINST MODERN SLAVERY.

On the first Sunday of Lent, we will focus on the fast God spoke of in Isaiah 58:6

*"Is not this the kind of fasting I have chosen:
to loose the chains of injustice
and untie the cords of the yoke,
to set the oppressed free
and break every yoke?"*

YOUR FREEDOM OFFERING WILL CHANGE LIVES.

Join in support of church-led ministries designed to prevent human trafficking and to minister to survivors of trafficking.

The Church of the Nazarene is present in countries around the world where people are vulnerable to human trafficking. In many areas, local churches are engaged in anti-trafficking efforts that range from prevention and education to protection and rehabilitation.

YOUR FREEDOM OFFERING WILL CHANGE LIVES.

On Freedom Sunday, your Freedom Offering, will go to support the following ministries:

Mobile Intervention Clinic

In Moldova, the Nazarene church is working to identify victims and potential victims of sex trafficking and provide hopeful alternatives, including rehabilitation programs.

Drop-In Center

Near a red-light district in Mumbai, India, the church is in the beginning stages of a drop-in center where the children of women who are prostituted can come for safety and education, and where women can find skills and training to begin a new life.

Scholarships for Trafficking Survivors.

With support, survivors of trafficking can find a path that leads to hope, healing, and restoration. Your gift will help fund scholarships for trafficking survivors at Nazarene colleges and universities around the world.

Preventing Trafficking of Children

In countries including the Philippines, Ukraine, Armenia, South Africa, and Democratic Republic of the Congo, churches are working to prevent trafficking among children and youth in their communities through education, training, and holistic child development ministries. The goal is to expand this work extensively.

Include "Freedom Offering / 124463" on your check, or give online through NCM.org/FreedomSunday.

SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITY

You can sponsor a child in an area where children are at higher risk for human trafficking, including India, Madagascar, Nepal, the Philippines, South Africa, Romania, and Ukraine.
